* Nationwide Stand-Up Comic, HBO Comedy Performer and Rodney Dangerfield's long-time opener

Watching a Bob Nelson live performance is like watching several different types of top comedians all rolled up into one. Bob's classic football routine is a recognized comedy classic and "Morning", his tale of a farmer and a duck, is one of the finest works of one man showmanship. His shows are filled with spontaneity, zaniness and singular moments that will astound you. Throughout his career, Bob Nelson has been hailed as one of the most gifted funny people on the planet.

A contemporary of Jerry Seinfeld and Jay Leno, Mr. Nelson's extraordinary talents have been refined by a career that has included multiple appearances on The Merv Griffin Show, The Tonight Show and David Letterman. Bob Nelson was Rodney Dangerfield's opening act for eight of the most popular years of Mr. Dangerfield's career. He also has two HBO specials including the ground breaking classic Nelson Schmelson.

Mr. Nelson won an Emmy Award in Philadelphia for a children's show he wrote and starred in. He has since had supporting roles in When Harry Met Sally, Ivan Reitman's Ghostbusters and Twins, as well as box office smash Kindergarten Cop with Arnold Schwarzenegger.
